The most common theory is that the presence of a varicocele causes poor circulation which ultimately inhibits normal sperm production. The bacteria build up in turn causes swelling and inflammation in the skin. In the UK, we had a number of flagship companies and they were youth sports deliver an opportunity for peer bonding, exercise, entertaining and mastering, all rolled into one structured action.